

Vladimir Markovic, MD | Chief Compliance Officer

Dr. Vladimir Markovic, HRCHC Chief Medical Officer (CMO), is a Board-Certified Family Medicine Physician and licensed by the Commonwealth of Virginia Board of Medicine. Dr. Markovic has been practicing medicine since 2011 and has been a proud member of the HRCHC family since 2014.

A New Jersey native, Dr. Markovic received his undergraduate degree from Rutgers University and continued his medical training at the Ross University School of Medicine. He completed his Residency at the Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School Family Medicine Residency Program at CentraState Medical Center. Dr. Markovic also serves as an Associate Professor at the Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) School of Medicine in Richmond, Virginia.

As a child, Dr. Markovic and his family migrated from the former Yugoslavia to America in pursuit of a better life and economic opportunities. The impact of watching his parents work hard every day and making tough choices when it came to “paying for medicine or paying the rent” helped form his commitment to becoming a physician and an advocate for health equity for all citizens. Proud of his roots and never forgetting where he comes from, Dr. Markovic strives to make a difference and lives by his family’s motto of “Do it, Live it, Breathe It, Own It.”

Dr. Markovic provides comprehensive medical care to patients of all ages that is thorough, easy to understand, and culturally respectful while maintaining integrity in the highest standards available. His practitioner motto is “relationship building without judgment” based on honesty and being genuine. Recognized for his healthcare leadership and excellence, in 2019, Dr. Markovic was promoted to HRCHC's Chief Medical Officer. His past accomplishments include Chief Resident at CentraState Medical Center, Teacher of the Year (Rutgers Medical School), and HRCHC Star performer for contributions to the Coleman Associates Project which is now in full implementation throughout the agency.

Dr. Markovic is a serious movie and music enthusiast who plays guitar and records meditation music. He is a sports lover and enjoys a very active lifestyle playing soccer, basketball, football, and rarely misses a day at the gym. He and his wife live in Norfolk with their son.

“We Care So You Can Be Healthy”